MOBILE, Ala. - The Mobile Police Department Intelligence Unit arrested an attorney and former FBI agent Monday.

Phillip Kent Baxley was arrested on an active fugitive felony warrant for indecency with a child. The charges come from Harris County, Texas.

Baxley was taken into custody at his law office. He will be extradited to Harris County, pending further court proceedings in that jurisdiction.

He has served for years as a coach for the Mobile Soccer Club.

I have known Kent Baxley his entire life, I am a cousin, and do not believe for one second that any allegation of sexual misconduct with a child could be true! I am a certified expert child forensic interviewer and have worked for a number of years as a therapist with child/adolscent sexual abuse victims. Kent is not this type of person. It is my constant prayer that the family of the child making the accusations will seek unbiased expert help for her. Kent you and your family are in my prayers.

I agree Juan ... Kent is my first cousin and has been the shining star of the Baxley family since the day he was born !! Such a sad thing to happen to such a kind and loving person. There's not one doubt in my mind: Kent is being used as a pawn in a bigger revenge game taking place in Texas right now !! But, as you said, by the time all of this is straightened out, and the TRUE reason for these accusations surface, Kent's life, and those of his children, will be forever tainted. It just breaks my heart that this mess has reared its ugly head in Kent's life. He does not deserve this .. he is now, and
