Former Officer Jeffery Webb Sr. Charged Again with Statutory Rape of Minor

JACKSON, Miss.

A judge has set a $100,000 bond for a former police officer accused of raping a minor.

Jeffery Webb Sr. is charged with statutory rape and sexual battery, according to the Jackson police docket. Details of the crime have not been made public.

This is the second time the 50-year-old former Jackson officer has been accused of rape.

Webb was charged with rape in 2002 for allegedly forcing a 16-year-old girl to have sex. He was acquitted of the charges in 2006.

Webb was found not guilty of the crime in March 2006 following a jury trial in Hinds County.

Quotes:

"Any time a law enforcement officer is accused of tarnishing the badge, it is an embarrassment to all the honest, hard-working members of this profession who work day in and day out to protect and serve with integrity."

"I'm sickened by this officer's betrayal of the badge. We cannot let one single act by one officer overshadow the brave work by men and women who wear the uniform and put themselves in harm's way everyday to protect our families and our neighborhoods."

"We have to be held accountable for our actions," said Police Chief John Ewing. "Just because we wear a badge, it doesn't mean we can break the law. We need to treat our police officers like someone who was walking down the street who may commit
