2015 Cop Pedophile Walter Moore

ENGLAND, Ark. - A former England Police Officer arrested for allegedly having sexual contact with a minor.

This makes the second officer involved arrest in the past couple of months.

Touchy subject for those in England, many of them just hearing the news when we told them.

Some say they are shocked this could happen, others said with previous arrest of England Officer David Houser, for filing a false police report, they aren't surprised.

Walter Moore, 25, was arrested last week by Arkansas State Police. Moore was held in the Lonoke County Jail after State Police investigated information that Moore had sexual contact with a minor age female earlier this year.

England Chief Cook said Moore was formerly an officer in the department and the last known date of employment was September 9, 2015. Moore most recently employed by Arkansas Highway Patrol.

People in England say this is horrible that it's happened and the second officer in England in a short period of time.

"They're here to serve and protect not take advantage of you, if you can't trust a police officer would you call them to your house to protect you?" asked Patricia Gregson.

The Lonoke County Prosecuting Attorney said this is the only charge as of now, but depending on the investigation there could be more added.
